

Everything Barbeque's Outdoor Kitchen Gallery Opens

The outdoor-living trend has really taken off in Oklahoma City, thanks to Everything Barbeque's newly expanded Outdoor Kitchen Gallery, which opened in May 2008. The specialty retailer's additional space of 1,200 square feet makes it possible to cater to a diverse range of backyard chefs.

"Being a small specialty store gives us the opportunity to have a one-on-one experience with our customers, really getting to know them so we can work together to help design an outdoor-living space that best fits their lifestyle and budget," Scott Grigsby, Everything Barbeque's owner, explains. The store currently carries lines from Lynx, Capital, OCI, Solaire, Luxor, Weber, Hasty-Bake and more. For more information, visit www.everythingbbq.com.
